About the Author

Verne Raymond[10] Spear was born February 11, 1917 at North Grand Street, West Suffield, Connecticut, the son of Forrest Mills Spear and Mary Ellen (Fahey) Spear. He graduated from West Suffield Grammar School in 1931 and from Agawam High School, Agawam, Massachusetts in 1935. He was employed as a carpenter and building contractor and, during the war years, worked at the U.S. Submarine Base, Groton, Connecticut. He entered into a partnership with his father in the late 1940s and formed Spear Lumber Company, Incorporated in 1950, becoming its Treasurer. He became President in 1966 upon the death of his father. On May 1, 1978 he sold the business and subsequently retired.

In addition to being Treasurer and President of Spear Lumber Company, he was President of the Lumber Dealers Association of Connecticut in 1967, its Treasurer from 1968 to 1978; President of the Northeastern Retail Lumbermans Association, Rochester, NY in 1975; Director, National Lumber and Building Material Dealers Association, Washington, D.C.; President of the Western Massachusetts Hoo-Hoo Club, Number 59 of the International Order of Hoo-Hoo, Gurdon, Arizona in 1967-1968. His hobbies are woodworking, hunting, fishing, and golf.

He became a Master Mason in 1950 at Mount Orthodox Lodge, AF & AM, West Springfield, Massachusetts and Shriner at Melha Temple, A.A.O.N.M.S. of Springfield, MA, and a member of the Feeding Hills Congregational Church, Feeding Hills, Massachusetts.

He is a member of both the Connecticut Society of Genealogists, Incorporated, and the Western Massachusetts Genealogy Society, Incorporated.

He has compiled and published two genealogies prior to this, his third, and hopes to do some traveling thereafter.

Dedication to Howard Alderman[9] Spear, Sr.

It gives the author and compiler a great deal of pleasure to dedicate this Spear Genealogy to the memory of Howard Alderman[9] Spear, Sr., deceased.

Howard contracted the "genealogy bug" at age 18 from his grandmother, Lucina (Alderman) Spear, and devoted much of his adult years to compiling and preserving our family history.

Many of the letters, deeds, wills, photographs and data, which the author has been able to include in this book, were handed down to him by Howard, some of which are two-hundred years old. With this exposure to the Spear Heritage, it was inevitable that this author would also catch the "genealogy bug." The result was the compilation and publishing of two genealogies prior to this, his third such work. The first, published in 1982, "The Descendants of Bernard Gormley," the paternal line of the author's wife and second, in 1984, "The Descendants of Redmond Peter Fahey and The Descendants of John Sweeney", the author's maternal line. Both books, as well as this genealogy, have been deposited in many public libraries throughout the United States, Canada, Ireland, and England, as well as all fifty State Libraries and/or Historical Societies, The Library of Congress and The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah.

This book is most sincerely dedicated.

Verne R. Spear

Abbreviations Used and How to Read This Genealogy

These records are arranged by generation, one through fourteen, beginning with George[1] Spear, the immigrant whose entry is number one.

The figure above and beyond the Christian name denotes the generation.

The figure before the name represents the number of persons descended from the immigrant, who is number one.

The easiest way to locate a person whose name is known is to refer to the index in the back pages of this book. There, the page or pages where the person is listed, will be shown. Next turn to the lowest numbered page. The person you are looking for will, most likely, have a number preceeding their name. If there is a + which preceeds the name, that will indicate that the name, by the same number, can be found in the following generation. The generation is given at the top of each page.

The Name and Family of Spear(s)
with a description of the Coat of Arms
compiled by the Media Research Bureau-Washington, D.C.

The Coat of Arms of the ancient Spier family is described in Burk's Encyclopedia of Heraldry as follows:

"ARMS - Argent a large thistle with three heads stalked with leaved vert, Flowered gules. CREST - A Dolphin haurient, devouring a fish propper."

It is well to remember that both the three headed thistle and the dolphin represent Scotland. This Coat of Arms, painted in colors, may be obtained from the Media Research Bureau, 1110 F Street, Washington, D.C..

The name of SPEAR, SPEARS, SPEER, or SPIER(S) is said to be derived from the occupation of its first bearer as a "spier" or watchman and is of very ancient origin. On the Scotch records the name is usually given as Spiers, the final s being genitive; and it is found on old English and early American records in the various forms of Spyer, Spyre, Speyer, Spire, Speere, Speier, Spere, Speir, Speirs, Speers, Speare, Spiers, Spier, Speer, Spears, Spear, and others, of which the last three are the most generally accepted spellings in America today, while the four variants immediately preceding them are also frequently used.

It is believed that the family which bears this name is of Anglo-Saxon ancestry and was early settled in Scotland, chiefly in Elderslie, County Renfrew, in County Perth, and in Glasgow. It was also to be found at early dates in the English Counties of Berks, Oxford, Essex, and York, as well as in the city and vicinity of London. These branches were, for the most part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Britain.

Among the earliest records of the name in England are those of Robertus Spyer, of Yorkshire, in 1379, whose records are, however, only fragmentary; and those of Richard Spyre, who was living in Oxfordshire in 1515, but whose records are equally incomplete.

In the latter half of the sixteenth century, certainly before 1580, one Richard Spier was resident at Holcombe Grange, County Oxford. He married Margaret, daughter of Anthony Elmes, and had a son named Anthony, who died in 1644, leaving issue by his wife Barbara, daughter of Sir Francis Castilion, of Berkshire, of six children, Anthony, Francis, Margaret, Barbara, Richard and Mary.

Of these, Anthony married Frances, daughter of Thomas Bryan, and remained in Oxfordshire, where he is believed to have left issue; Francis married Mary, daughter of Hugh Keat, of Berkshire, but his records are not complete; and Richard settled at Wargrave, in Berkshire, and left issue there by his wife Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Turner "alias Ferrers", of Richard, Anthony, John, Charles, Elizabeth, and Susan.

John Spier, of Oxfordshire, married Jane Price about 1662, but left no definite records concerning his immediate descendants.

Among the later records of the family in the British Isles are those of one Speir, of Burnbrae, in Renfrewshire, before 1688, who had a son named Robert, who was married in 1718 to Mary, daughter of Thomas Fyfe, and left issue by her of, among other children, an eldest son named William, who married Mary, daughter of John Robertson, Esq., and had a son named Robert, as well as four daughters; those of John Spiers, of Edinburgh, Scotland, who was married in 1708 to Isabelle, daughter of John Tweedie, and was the father by her of John, Alexander, James, Isabell, Helen, Margaret, Anna, and Joanna, of whom the son Alexander married Sarah Carey, of Virginia, but made his home in Scotland; and those of Alexander Speirs of Spiers, of Elderslie, who was the father in the latter eighteenth century of a son named Archibald.

Although it is not definitely known from which of the many lines of the family in England and Scotland the first emigrants of the name to America was descended, it is recorded that the Spear, Spears, Speer, etc., families were among the earliest in the New World.

Probably the first of the name in America was George Spear (also recorded as "Spere"), who settled in Braintree, Mass., before 1644 and may have previously resided at Dorchester and Boston, in the same colony. By his wife Mary he was the father of George, Sarah, Samuel (died young), Richard, Hannah (died young), Ebenezer, Samuel, Nathaniel and Hannah.

George Spear, Jr., the eldest son of the immigrant George (although some writers have mistakenly stated that his was a second marriage of the first George), was married at Braintree in 1669 to Mary Deering, by whom he had issue of Mary and Ebenezer or Eleazer, of whom the latter died in infancy. George Jr. is believed to have died in early manhood.

Richard, son of the immigrant George, was the father by his wife, whose name is not known, of Rebecca, Benjamin, Richard, John, James, Mary, and Deborah, whose records are not complete.

Ebenezer, son of the immigrant George, was married in 1679 to Rachel Deering, of Braintree, and was the father by her of Ebenezer, Mary, Samuel, Rachel, Joseph, Nathaniel, Abigail, Benjamin, and Deering. Of these, Ebenezer married Mary Copland in 1718 and Mary Tower in 1727; Samuel had a wife named Rebecca; Joseph (also recorded as "Spere") settled at Hull, Mass., and was the father by his wife Mary Collier, whom he married in 1720, of Joseph, Gershom, David, Nathan, Paul, Poole, Mary, and Elizabeth; Benjamin married Sarah Niles in 1722 and was the father by her of Benjamin, Sarah, Jacob, Isaac, Moses, and Joseph; and Deering is said by some writers to have married Deborah Niles in 1722 and by others to have married Jemima Thayer (possibly a second wife) in 1726. The records of all of these lines are, however, incomplete.

Samuel, son of the immigrant George, was the father at Braintree of Samuel (minister of Provincetown), Daniel (died young), Elizabeth, Mehitable, Dorothy, Hannah, William, John, Mary, and Benoni. It is thought probable that the wife of the first Samuel was Elizabeth Daniels and that they were married in 1694, but this is not certain. Samuel Jr. married Rebecca Hinckley and was probably the father of Jacob, Samuel, Elias, Joseph, and others. Of the other sons of the first Samuel, William married Hannah Penniman in 1730; John married Mary Arnold in 1736; and Benoni married Elizabeth Newcomb.

Nathaniel, youngest son of the immigrant George, married Hannah Holman, of Braintree, in 1689 and had issue by her of Hannah, Nathaniel, John, Mary, Daniel or David, Joseph, Nathan, Thomas (died young), Margaret, and Lydia. Of these, Nathaniel had a wife named Thankful; John married Ann Perry in 1718; Daniel or David had a wife named Deborah; Joseph married Abigail Cleg; and Nathan married Mehitabel Brackett in 1734.

In 1653 one Robert Speare, Spear, or Spears came to Virginia, and he may have had a family there, although no record of his immediate descendants has been found.

Sometime before 1725 one David Spier, Speir, or Spear, of Scotch ancestry, came from Coleraine, County Londonderry, Ireland, to Windsor, Conn., whence he later removed to Palmer, Mass. His children were David, Anna, William, John, Calvin, Luther, and Sarah.

John Spear, of Scotch ancestry, who may have been a brother of the immigrant David, came from Londonderry, Ireland, to Woburn, Mass., about the same time. He had a wife named Catrin and a son named Robert, who was identical with that Robert Spear who settled at Warren, Me., about 1735 and left issue there by his wife, the Widow Margaret (nee McLean) Turk, of John and Catherine.

One Dr. Thomas Spier, whose ancestry is not certain, was living at New London, Conn., in the early eighteenth century and was the father of, among others, a son named William.

Among the numerous later records of the family in America are those of John Speer, of Rockbridge County, Va., who married Mary Harberger in 1792; those of John Speer, of Rockbridge County, who married Mary Houston in 1797; those of Robert Speer, of Rockbridge, who married Anges Williams in 1795; and those of the Reverend William Speer, of Gettysburg, Pa., who married Sarah Ramsey in 1795 and was the father by her of James Ramsey, Maria, and Elizabeth Speer.

The progeny of these and other branches of the family in America have removed to every part of the Union and have contributed as much to the rise and expansion of the nation as their forbears did to its establishment on this continent. On the whole, the record of the family in America is that of a generous, public-spirited, understanding race, possessed in most lines, at least, of intellectual ability and leadership.

Among those of the name who fought as officers in the War of the Revolution were Lieutenants Edward and John Spear, of Pennsylvania; Lieutenants Moses, Jacob, David, William, and Zebadiah Spear, of Massachusetts; and Captains David and Jonathan Spears, of Massachusetts, of whom the first is also recorded as Captain David Speer. There were also numerous others in the ranks from the various New England and Southern States, including Barnabas, Benjamin, Daniel, Deering, Ebenezer, Edward, Eli, Gershom, Isaac, Jabez, James, John, Joseph, Joshua, Lemuel, Luther, Nathan, Nathaniel, Paul, Richard, Samuel, Simon, Stephen, Thomas and Timothy Spear, of Massachusetts; Eli, James, Peter, and Simeon Spears, of Massachusetts; John, Simeon, William and Sergeant James Speer, of Massachusetts; William Speir, of Massachusetts; Jacob, John, Robert, Samuel, and William Spear(s), of Virginia; Paul Speers, of Virginia; and many more as well.

George, Ebenezer, Samuel, Robert, John, Richard, Joseph, Nathaniel, Benjamin, Thomas, James, David and William are some of the Christian names most favored by the family for its male progeny.

A few of the many members of the family who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

Charles Spear (1801-1863), of Boston, philanthropist and author.

Samuel Thayer Spear (1821-1891), of New York, Presbyterian clergyman and author.

James Spear (1827-1902), of Pennsylvania, manufacturer.

Ellis Spear (1834-1917), of Maine, military officer and government official.

Emory Speer (1848-1918), of Georgia, jurist.

John Randolph Spears (b. 1850), of Ohio, author and journalist.

Robert Elliot Speer (b. 1867), of Pennsylvania, religious leader and foreign missions secretary.

One of the several coats of arms of the English or Scottish family of Spear, Spears, Speer, etc., is that described as follows (Burke, Encyclopedia of Heraldry, 1844):

Arms. -- "Argent, a thistle, with three heads, stalked and leaved vert, flowered gules."

Crest. -- "A dolphin haurient, devouring a fish, proper."

Introduction

by the Author

Like many collectors of family records, I caught the "genealogy bug" from my cousin, Howard Alderman[9] Spear, Sr., some twenty-five years ago. Before his passing in 1976 at age 87 I obtained his collection of books, Spear records and memorabilia which gave me a start.

The compilation in the beginning was also made easier by our early ancestors activities and vital records being recorded from 1640 to 1793 by Samuel A. Bates, town clerk of Braintree, MA in 1886. The reader is reminded that the towns of Braintree, Quincy, Randolph and Holbrook formerly comprised the town of Braintree having since been set apart.

On January 3, 1985, I wrote my first letter as the beginning of my final research with the ultimate goal of having a Spear genealogy published. I have since written over two thousand letters, using over one-hundred ball point pens, to persons in nearly all fifty states, Canada and England.

I have used the facilities of libraries and historical societies throughout the New England states and Canada. In June, 1986, my wife and I attended Spear family reunions in Fort Dodge, Iowa and Windsor, Vermont. In August, 1986, we visited Cape Spear, the most easterly point in North America at the National Historic Park near St. John's, Newfoundland, Canada. After a week of research, as a result of my inquiry, I was met at our hotel at St. John's by a representative of Parks Canada who informed me that Cape Spear was not named for a Spear family member.

My sister and I were the last Spears to be be born, at home, on North Grand Street, West Suffield, Connecticut where Moses[4] Spear settled in 1752. Of his twelve children, the only one to remain in Suffield was his son Moses[5] Spear, Jr., which is our line. All the other children who lived went to Vermont, Pennsylvania, New York and one ended up in Lower Canada where he married an Indian.

Having been born, raised and worked where my ancestors have been for 235 years sort of qualifies me as the person that should compile a Spear genealogy. Two recent events have pointed out to me how imperative it is that a genealogy be published promptly. One event was December 29, 1986 when I, with sadness of heart, sold the very last real estate held by a Spear on North Grand Street, West Suffield, Connecticut since 1752. The second event was when I turned 70 years of age February 11, 1987. As someone once said, "Nothing is forever."

Not unlike most genealogies, I am sure mistakes will be found in this book as well, but I can assure the reader I have made every effort for perfection.

I regret, due to the size and thus the cost of the book, that it became necessary to delete records of baptism, detailed occupations, anecdotes, etc., and I apologize to those correspondents who offered them. These records have been retained and with all of my research notes will be given to the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston.

The pages of this book are of the finest acid free paper.

As with the two previous genealogies I have had published, this one as well will be placed in public libraries throughout the U.S.A., all fifty state libraries and/or historical societies, the Library of Congress and Provincial Libraries in Canada. If your local library wishes to have a copy for their genealogical section, ask them to request a free copy from the author for as long as the edition is available for that purpose.

Individuals may purchase copies, for as long as the edition is available by sending their request to the author and after his passing to his daughter #6209, Karen A. Spear.

Respectfully submitted,

Verne R. Spear

Acknowledgements

The author and compiler of this genealogy gratefully acknowledges the help he has received from his many correspondents, friends and cousins who unselfishly shared their family data with him for the benefit of all.

The Spears who settled in Vermont were well researched at Montpelier by the compiler and Mrs. Lewis "Maudean" Neill, whose husband is an eleventh generation Spear. Maudean was without a doubt, the contributor of the largest amount of documented data for which we are all grateful. The State of Vermont, where researchers are welcome to search the vital records from 1760-1954, also has the gratitude of this compiler.

In the Province of Quebec, where a number of Spears migrated to from Northern Vermont, the following persons were most helpful in the research of those families, for which the author is most appreciative: Ms. Marion Phelps, Brome County Historical Society, Knowlton; Mrs. Sabine DeGroote, Missisquoi Historical Society, Stanbridge East; and Andree Chartrand-Turgeon and Stephen Moore, Bishop's University, Eastern Townships Research Centre, Lennoxville.

The compiler wishes to extend his thanks especially to the following individuals, who live in seventeen states, for their dedicated efforts in assisting him in his endeavor:

First Generation

1 George[1] Spear, b. abt. 1613, perhaps at Sheffield or Yarmouth, England, came to Boston, MA abt. 1642, became a freeman May 29, 1644 at Dorchester, MA, settled in that part called Braintree, MA (now Quincy). He was a Baptist Deacon. In his old age, it is said, he moved to New Dartmouth, ME (now Pemaquid) where his third wife had real estate. Legend says while at Sheepscot, New Dartmouth, Province of Maine he was killed during an indian raid. Mar. first abt. 1643, Mary Heath, bpt. Sept. 2, 1627, Nazeing, Co. Essex, England, d. Dec. 7, 1674, Braintree, MA (p.640), dau. of William Heath and Mary Perry [The reader will note that the author has given the mother of Mary Heath as Mary Perry instead of Mary Cramphorne as given by Walter Gooding Davis in his treatment of the Heath family of Roxbury, MA in "The Ancestry of Annis Spear of Litchfield, Maine, 1945."

A second and conflicting view is shared by this author as it appeared in the Jan., 1978 issue of The New England Historical Genealogical Register entitled "The Emigrants from Hertfordshire 1630-1640: Some Corrections and Additions by Peter Walne." This author has corresponded with Mr. Walne who is the County Archivist at Hertfordshire, England.

This author questioned the date given in Mr. Walne's article for the burial of Mary, wife of William Heath because it conflicted with William Heath's second marriage to Mary Perry. Mr. Walne's reply, quote "I am sorry that the reference to the burial at Great Amwell of Mary, wife of William Heath of Ware End is wrongly dated, an error which I discovered too late to correct before my article was printed in 1978. The correct date, checked in the register, which is beside me as I write, is 24 November, 1621. This revised date makes my account of William Heath's marriages and children clear. I think and I hope that, the corrections made, you will accept my findings and incorporate them in your account. My apologies for the confusion I caused.

You query two spellings - Nazeing is the usual spelling and Cramphorne is the correct spelling of that name, Crampthorne is quite wrong."

The address is: Mr. Peter Walne, County Archivist, Hertfordshire County Council, County Record Office, County Hall, Hertford, England SG 13 8DE.

by third marriage — probably no issue

This author is not going to second guess as to whether or not a son Robert Spear was born from George Spear's third marriage as some authors have written. My research has not been able to document such an event much to my regret.

For what it is worth I quote from page 4, of The Ancestry of Annis Spear written by the highly respected author, Walter Goodwin Davis, quote "It is quite impossible that Robert Spear of Brunswick, ME who lived in the first half of the eighteenth century could have been a son of George and Elizabeth (Gent) Spear. Elizabeth had a son by her first husband born in or about 1642 and her child bearing years must have long passed by the time of her marriage to Spear which took place after 1678. Robert Spear was in all probability an ulsterman, as were many of his contemporaries in the Kennebec region."

During the research for this genealogy, this author has visited and corresponded with numerous persons who claim they are descended from Robert Spear, the son of George and Elizabeth (Gent) Spear. All the data submitted by them has been compiled and will be deposited along with other research notes, with the NEHGS, Boston.

The last four children are given as children of John Secondus and Mary, as John[3] (Nathaniel[2], George[1]) had moved to Stoughton before 1754 leaving only John[3] Spear (Samuel[2], George[1]) as his elder in town.

* To quote the foot note (p 13) "The Ancestry of Annis Spear" by Walter Goodwin Davis best explains the John Spear, Secundus and John Spear, Tertius. "It is probable that in 1760 John[3] Spear (Nathaniel[2]) left Braintree for Rehoboth and there upon John[3] Spear (Samuel[2]), hitherto "Jr." or "Secundus" moved up to "Sr."

The four children whose births (1754-Nov 1760) were recorded (p 824) in The Braintree [MA] in 1760 or later as children of John Spear, Secondus, were therefore children of a John Spear of the fourth generation who had previously been known as John Spear, Tertius or 3rd presumably John[4] (Joseph[3], Ebenezer[2], George[1])

SUFFIELD

The church of the "Separates," or "New Lights," was composed of dissenters or seceders from the "Standing Order," led by Joseph Hastings, who was ordained the first minister, April 18, 1750. The separation began about the year 1742, and meetings were held in private houses, where exhorters and shouters enjoyed religious freedom. A church was probably formed when Mr. Hastings was ordained, though no record of it is found, and no roll of its membership exists. Sept. 20, 1763, the town voted "That the Separates shall set their Meeting House on the Highway that goes by General Lyman's, West, viz. on y' 9 north side of the Highway between the foot of the hill and Mr. Gideon Granger's Lot." It was built soon after. The Rev. Israel Holley was ordained its pastor, June 29, 1763. Soon afterward Baptist sentiments crept in, and the doctrines of baptism, infant sprinkling, half covenant, etc., separated the Separates. Again, Joseph Hastings (who had withdrawn or been dismissed) marshalled the disaffected, and led them to "pastures green" on "Zion's Hill." The Separate society lost the larger part of its membership, but maintained a feeble existence until about 1784, when its meeting-house was sold, and the members mostly returned to the ancient fold. Mr. Holley became a Congregational minister, preaching at Granby and North Cornwall. He was a man of ability, and a patriot, as shown by his printed address, delivered at Suffield the Sunday after the destruction of tea in Boston Harbor. The origin, growth, and collapse of the Separatists make an interesting episode in Connecticut history. Only ten or twelve towns had the "New Light" societies; Suffield, Enfield, and Windsor being of the number.

The first "Baptized Church" and society was an offshoot from the Separates, and was organized in 1769, with Joseph Hastings for its first minister. It built a brick meeting-house on Zion's or Hastings Hill, about that period. No church records exist, and little is known of its history under Joseph Hastings's pastorate. His son John was the second minister; he was ordained in 1775, and served with marked success as a revivalist until his death. He is said to have baptized eleven hundred persons during his ministry, and he was one of the most eminent ministers of the Baptist faith. Few men have lived whose influence has been more potent in shaping the religious, social, and political character of the town. Nine churches were formed by colonies from this. The little brick meeting-house gave way to a large barn-like structure, without tower, bell, or steeple. At the beginning of this century the pilgrims who wended their way to Zion's Hill were numbered by scores and hundreds. These scenes are now traditional memories. In 1846 the present more cheerful edifice was built upon the site of the old.

These inscriptions are copied from gravestones in the Hastings Hill churchyard:—

"In memory of Joseph Hastings, who died Nov. 4, 1785, in the 82d year of his age. He was the first Baptist minister in Suffield.

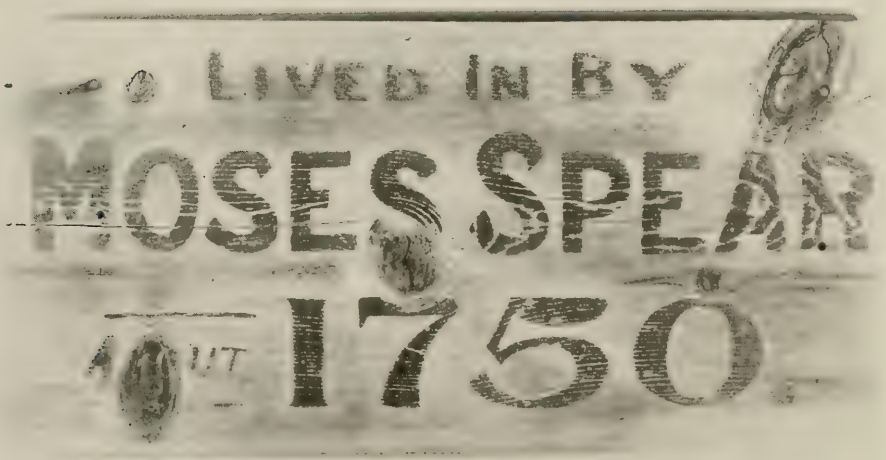
"Depart my friends, dry up your tears,
Here I must lie, 'til Christ appears."

"Sacred to the memory of the Rev. John Hastings, who died the 17th of March, A.D. 1811, in the 68th year of his age, who was the 2d Baptist minister in Suffield.

"Who like the Apostles, called from men's employ,
Made sinners tremble, filled the saints with joy."

Moses[4] Spear, I, gr, gr, gr great grandfather of this author moved from Braintree, MA to Lebanon, CT when in his early twenties. A farmer, he married in 1744 Sibbel, the daughter of Ebenezer and Hannah (Clark) Hunt of Lebanon. They probably lived with Sibbels parents until Moses purchased a parcel of land on April 3, 1746 from Simeon Hunt at Lebanon, CT (bk 7 p 12). The following is an extraction from that deed, "Simeon Hunt of Lebanon, County of Windham in New England, in consideration of 70 pounds sells Moses Speir of the same town, county and colony a certain tract and parcel of land in Lebanon. Beginning at a walnut tree going the east corner by the highway, then running south westward abutting South Eastwardly on land of Jonathan Lyman, then 80 rods by a poplar tree going the south corner then turning and running North Westwardly abutting South Westwardly upon the land of John Dewey fourteen rods to a stake and heap of stones then turning and running North Eastwardly by a parallel with the above highway to a walnut base marked with stones about it, then turning and running South Eastwardly by the highway fourteen rods to the first mentioned boundary.

A present day description of this tract of land places it on the main road from Norwich to Windham Center, CT and the east corner of present day route 87 and route 207. His land in part, may be that of the present day Elementary School and Town Hall land.



This photograph taken in 1986 of the saltbox house lived in by Moses[4] Spear, I in 1750, was loaned to this compiler in 1988 by Thomas J. Sheridan III, the present owner who is currently renovating the house. Observe the plaque which reads "Lived in by Moses Spear abt. 1750".

It should also be noted that Governor Jonathan Trumbull lived on the west corner of Lebanon Green and they certainly were neighbors and friends.

Sibbel (Hunt) Spear, wife of Moses[4] Spear, I died Aug. 11, 1748 six weeks after giving birth to their second child and three years and eight months into their marriage. Left with two infant children, Moses met and married within six months on March 9, 1749 Submit Hastings of Suffield, CT, daughter of Rev. Joseph Hastings, minister of the First Baptist Church, Zions Hill, (now Hastings Hill) Suffield, CT.

Submit received a letter of recommendation from the Church at Suffield to ye First Church in Lebanon on April 30, 1749.

Moses and Submit soon had their first baby girl, Submit, born Nov. 22, 1749 at Lebanon, CT and their second daughter Sybel was born May 7, 1751 also at Lebanon. At this point in time, Moses Spear must have been counting his blessings, except for the tragic loss of his first wife, he was now the proud father of two sons and two daughters. His blessings were short lived, however, because within one month his eldest son died on June 8, 1751 at Lebanon being five and one half years of age, then his eldest daughter Submit died seven months later on Jan. 27, 1752 at Lebanon at age twenty six months.

Having lost his first wife and two children, it is thought that Moses Spear was anxious to move to another area. When his neighbor and good friend on the Lebanon Green, Governor Trumbull offered to sell his land in West Suffield, Moses grasped the opportunity and purchased the property.

Moving to Suffield no doubt pleased Submit as she would be close to her kin on Hasting Hill.

Moses[4] Spear, I sold his land at Lebanon, CT (bk 8, p 110) on Dec. 18, 1752 for five hundred and seventy five pounds to William Torrey, the exact parcel of land he had purchased six years earlier but now with a dwelling and no doubt other improvements to warrant such a profit. Johnathan Trumbull signed as a witness to this transaction and as the Justice of the Peace.

The deed from Governor Trumbull to Moses Spear for land at the Connecticut-Massachusetts state line, which was always called "Trumbull Plains" by the authors family, has remained with the family for many generations. The last person to possess this old deed was Howard Alderman Spear, Sr., when living at Etna, ME, decided it was time to pass the deed on to this compiler. Howard and his wife Stella were enroute to our home in West Suffield when they decided to change drivers at the beginning of the Maine Turnpike at Augusta, ME. While they were stopped, Howard removed the briefcase from the trunk and placed it on the car roof while he searched for an article. He then drove off and the briefcase containing the deed was lost.

A plaque on the saltbox house, owned by the Sheridan family for the past fifty years, presently known as 1515 North Grand Street, West Suffield, reads: "Lived in by Moses Spear abt. 1750". From the data obtained by this compiler it would appear that 1752 was the more likely year that Moses[4] Spear, I and his wife and family moved to Suffield.

The original plaque was removed from the house and is in the compilers possession as a keepsake. A duplicate was placed on the salt box house prior to the death of Mrs. Thomas Sheridan, Sr.

The first real estate transaction recorded for Moses Spear in Suffield was recorded in Vol. 1, p 239 of the Suffield, CT Land Records. Samuel Hatheway, grantor to Moses Spear on March 9, 1754 for land on Burlesons Brook and Meadow for ninety pounds old tenor. Other early land transactions were Vol. 1, p 240 Thomas Sheldon, grantor to Moses Spear for land by the highway leading from Ireland Plains to Burlesons Brook for the sum of one-hundred-forty-six pounds of old tenor; Vol. 1, p 242 Abijah Roe, grantor to Moses Spear for meadow land on Burlesons Brook for the sum of thirty pounds of money old tenor; Vol. 1, pg 292, William and Isaac Halladay, grantors to Moses Spear on Oct. 10, 1753 land formerly belonging to their grandfather Walter Halladay for the sum of thirty pounds money; Vol. 3, pg 83 Samuel and Stephen Remington, grantors to Moses Spear for land, one acre and one quarter on Burlesons Brook Swamp, Suffield, CT on Dec. 18, 1770 for the consideration of two pounds lawful money; Vol. 3 pg 84 Capt. Jonathan Remington, grantor, to Moses Spear for three-and-one-half acres on Dec. 18, 1770 for the consideration of six pounds lawful money, situated in Suffield in Burleson Brook Swamp Meadow.

The following article is copied as it appeared in Boyles Journal of Occurrences in Boston, (p.151, 152) "This 20th day of March, 1760 will be a day memorable for the most terrible fire that has happened in this town, or perhaps in any other since the settlement of these American Colonies. It began about two o'clock in the morning in the Dwelling house of Mrs. Mary Jackson and son, at Brazen-Head in Cornhill, but the accident which occasioned it is entirely uncertain. The flames catched houses adjoining in the front of the street, and burnt three or four large buildings, and from thence took its course Eastwards and burnt with amazing rapidity till 7 o'clock in the morning, when a stop to its further progress was put at the Bunch of Grapes Tavern in King Street. The following is a list of the persons whose dwellings were consumed in the dreadful calamity.
[of a long list of owners who lost their homes on Cornhill, Quaker Lane, Mackrel Lane, Water Street was the dwelling of David Spear located towards Oliver's Dock.]

Source: History of the Pioneer Settlement of Phelps and Gorham's Purchase and Morris Reserve by O. Turner published in Rochester, NY 1851 page 380 - quote

The settlers that followed, in 1790, '91, '92, in the order in which they are named, or as nearly so as the author's information enables him to arrange them, were: — Lemuel Spear, David Jackways, James Galloway, Jonathan Millet, the Mattisons; Gideon Durfee the elder, his sons Gideon, Edward, Job, Pardon, Stephen, and Lemuel; Isaac Springer; William, James and Thomas Rogers; John Russell, Nathan Harris, David Wilcox, Joel Foster, Abraham Foster, Elias Reeves, Luther Sanford; and to what was Palmyra, now Macedon, in addition to those that have been named, Messrs, Reid, Delano, Packard Barney, Brown, Adam Kingman, Hill, Lapham, Benj. and Philip Woods.

Lemuel Spear, was a soldier of the Revolution, as most of the Pioneer settlers of Palmyra were. He was from Cummington, Mass. The family came on runners, before the breaking up of the ground in Feb '90, with two yoke of oxen, some cows and sheep, having little more than a bare track and blazed trees to guide them from Vienna to their destination, a mile above Palmyra village, where Mr. Spear had purchased land of Isaac Hathaway, for twenty cents per acre. The season being mild, they turned their stock out upon the open flats, some of which had been cultivated by the Indians, where they got along well through the winter and spring; the family consisting of the parents and nine children, living in a covered sleigh and in a structure similar to the Indians camp, until they had planted a few acres in the spring, when they built a log house. Bringing in a year's provisions, and killing deer whenever they wanted fresh meat, or bartering for venison with the Indians, they got along very well until after the harvest of their few primitive acres of crops. In the first winters, the Indians camped upon the flats and were peaceable, good neighbors, hunting and trapping, occasionally getting a beaver, the last of a colony, selling their furs and skins to traders and bantering their surplus venison with the new settlers. Lemuel Spear died in 1809; his surviving sons, are: — Ebenezer Spear, of Penfield, Abraham Spear, of Jeddo, Orleans County, Stephen Spear, residing upon the old homestead. A daughter is the wife of Dr. Mallory, of Wisconsin.

Backman, Jr., Bookcraft 1971 (p.65) - quote "Four years after the Baptists of Manchester united, nineteen believers living in and near Palmyra [NY] Village began holding services in the home of Lemuel Spear. A number of these Calvinist Baptist had belonged to the Congregation in Manchester but withdrew to form their own society. These Protestants were the first to hold religious services in Palmyra Village and in 1802 membership had grown to almost seventy."

Spear, Jacob[5].

b. Oct. 7, 1755, s. of Samuel and Marah Spear of Braintree

d. July 27, 1829 at the house of his wife's cousin, Joseph Spear, Braintree, Orange Co., VT., while on a visit.

Note: "He enlisted...January 1776, for one year, and served as a private in Capt. John Vinton's co., Col. Sergent's Massachusetts regt. until after the battle of White Plains, when he was detached and served as one of General Sullivan's Life Guards; he was at the battle of Trenton, where he was wounded,...and was not able to rejoin the army until after the term of his enlistment had expired.

In January or February, 1777, he went on board the frigate "Hancock", Commodore John Manly, commander, and served as corporal marines under Captain Seth Baxter, Captain of Marines; while on a cruise on June 7, 1777, the "Hancock" had an engagement with the British frigate, "Fox", Lord George Sackville, commander, and captured said "Fox"; on July 7 or 8, 1777, the "Hancock" had an engagement with the "Flora", a British frigate, between Boston and the Banks of Newfoundland, and the "Flora" was compelled to fly from the combat"; the next day in an engagement with the British frigates, "Rainbow" and "Cabot" or "Rabbitt", the "Hancock" "struck her colors and was carried into Halifax"; Jacob Spear remained in prison there until January 1, 1778 when he was put on board the British transport, "Royal Bounty", bound for Rhode Island and New York; while on this voyage, the prisoners, about sixty in number, succeeded in taking the vessel and carried her into Marblehead. In the summer of 1779, Jacob Spear again entered the service on board the United States frigate, "Warren", Commodore Saltonstall, and went on an expedition against Penobscot, on which expedition the "Warren" was blown up to prevent her falling into the hands of the enemy. After the conclusion of this service, he engaged on board a privateer; no details of this last service given. Auth: Pension Office.

Spear Cem., Springfield, PA with his Uncle Joshua Spear a half brother to Elihu's father, Nathaniel Spear.

It is thought by some that he was a brother of Joshua Spear but the dates prove otherwise.

The Descendants of George Spear

The Manuel of the Congregational Church of Rodman, NY with church register and alphabetical roll of members published centennial year of the church, 1905 on page 9 states that the parents of Rev. David[6] Spear [Nathaniel[5] and Penelope Spear] died and are buried at Rodman, NY and they are in the Fairview Cem.

The following was copied by the compiler from a sheet of brown paper on which were written the accounts of three daughters of Moses[4] Spear, namely Sybel, Submit and Elizabeth. All were written in long hand by Moses[4] Spear over two hundred years ago and are in the possession of the compiler. A fourth record is also on the same sheet of paper which the compiler shows here:

Fifth Generation

The following two paragraphs were taken from page 94 of "Vermont Once No Man's Land" by Merritt C. Barden, published by the Tuttle Co., Rutland, VT in 1928.

The First Baptist Church, Pawlet, VT

The First Baptist Church of Pawlet, VT. was organized on the first Monday [3rd] in May, 1790, at the home of Edmund Whedon at W. Pawlet. Its first members were James Bennett, Thomas Hall, Solomon Brown, Joseph Hascell, John Crough, Samuel Sisco, Caleb Agard, Nathaniel Harmon, Samuel Abbott, Alexander Trumbull, Edmund Whedon, Lydia Wilcox, Mary Bennett, Hannah Hanks, Marian Hopkins (wife of James), Sybil (Spear) Sheldon (wife of John = Sheldon) Lydia Agard and Elizabeth Conant, under the auspices of Elder Brown. Services for the first few years were held at private houses and even in barns. About 1800 a church was built on the brow of the hill near Waite Hatch, Pawlet. After some years this church was taken down and moved to a farm in the town of Hebron, NY.

Note - Where was the home of John and Sybil (Spear) Sheldon? He served in Enoch Eastman's Company, Ira Allen's Regt., of Rupert men; lived in Rupert; they are buried there. In the U.S. Census of 1790 we find them living between his brother-in-law, Seth Harmon, Deacon Prescotts' place now owned (1928) by Arthur Higgins, and the Elwell place, now (1928) the tenement of Chas. I. Sheldon. This locates John Sheldon and Sybil on the place of Charles I. Sheldon.

The following was copied as best as the compiler was able to, from a sheet of brown paper that is in his possession. It was probably written by Moses[4] Spear, Sybil's father. The compiler reminds the reader that the articles mentioned are over two hundred years old, a little before his time, and are difficult to name:

The following article referring to the absence of records of the town of Rupert, VT is proof of the obstacles that the author encountered in his efforts to document the events of birth, death and marriage during his research for this book.

Rupert, VT was without records during two periods of its early history.

The first period of time was during the Revolution. The author quotes from Rupert, VT, Historical and Descriptive 1761-1898 by George S. Hibbard, pg 25, "During this memorable struggle, the people of Vermont were afflicted beyond comparison; for the addition to the claims of New York, there were tories in their midst with British and Indians on their borders. Situated as our town was with respect to the conflict, it is reasonable to believe it had its full share of stirring events: but the want of records makes it impossible to verify this in only a small degree.

From May 18, 1773 to April 4, 1780 the records are silent. When Cass, the Tory clerk, who stole our records, left is not known" end quote.

The second reference to missing records for Rupert, VT is on page 32 of the same book, quote: Break in the Records — "From April 1781 to March 1789, our records are lacking; at the latter date they appear, and are henceforth continuous. As this break cannot be charged to the turmoil of war, much less to Cass, some other explanation is needed. One is that they were accidentally burned, but has little support and may be dismissed. Another of intentional burning is better supported and is probably true. The reason given for this act was the desire to prevent the Church of England from obtaining the land granted to it by the King. By destroying the records of location of the glebe the church would be unable to find it, and so much gain for the town," end quote.

Elijah Spear's name is on the list of Rupert [VT] men who under Captain Enoch Eastman were called out May 1, 1782 to pursue the enemy which had taken Lt. William Blanchard of Arlington, VT and Captain Hind's son's of Arlington as captives.

The author reminds the reader and future historians that not all of the data included in this genealogy for the descendants of Elijah[5] Spear, (Moses[4], Nathaniel[3], Nathaniel[2], George[1]) has been documented to his satisfaction. However much research has gone into the final manuscript and if errors and/or omissions have occurred it is hoped he will not be judged too harshly. The most intriguing research the author encountered during the compilation of this entire genealogy has been the search for this Elijah Spear, his two wives and their families, treated here.

Early in the research the author made a visit to Rupert, Vermont and met with a number of its older residents and heard family tradition nearly two hundred years old. He learned that Elijah Spear, his wife Lydia and their children went to Lower Canada where Lydia soon died. He was told Elijah's daughters Rhoda and Lydia were then sent back to Rupert where they were raised by their Aunt Leavitt. Aunt Leavitt was their mothers sister Abigail (Kent) Austin, Leavitt who had married first Benajah Austin and after his death had married Samuel Leavitt. When the Leavitts later went west to Ohio, Rhoda and Lydia then lived with another aunt, their Aunt Huldah (Austin) Flower, wife of Dea. Roswell Flower of Kent Hollow, West Rupert.

At this point it seemed purdent for the author to do some research in Canada, so he and his wife drove up to Brome County Historical Society. There we met Miss Marion Phelps, Curator located at Knowlton, Quebec. With Marion's help we read cemetery records, baptismal records, Eastern Townships Gazetteer and Directory, County of Missisquoi Directory 1879, Farmers Directory St. George de Clarenceville and Township of Stanbridge, Beldens Atlas 1864. Marion suggested that research at Sherbrooke, PQ was in order.

When my wife and I were returning from Knowlton we decided to lay over that night at Montpelier, VT so that I could spend the next day searching the Vermont Vital records. As I was leaving that place the next afternoon, Lillian Maloney, head archivist for the Vermont Vital Records showed me a letter she had just received from a Mrs. Iowa Spear Wilson from Abilene, Texas who was searching for Joel Spear, her great grandfather. I was thrilled to find a descendant of Elijah Spear and his son Joel so as soon as I arrived home that evening I called Mrs. Wilson in Texas to tell her I was compiling a Spear Genealogy. She in turn told me she was having a Spear Family Memorial published, 1985. After hearing me out her remark was "We are kin, we have to talk, I may park my self on your door step." It was during this first call that "Lee," the name she asked to be called, told this author that her great grandfather was born June 24, 1785 which she had paid a researcher to find out. I then had to tell "Lee" that Elijah Spear did have a son Joel born on that date but a handwritten letter which was in this authors posession having been handed down thru the past two hundred years, would disclaim that Joel Spear born in 1785 was her great grandfather. I had only the day previous learned that Joel Spear, who died at Stanbridge, PQ Canada on April 6, 1862 age 72-10-2 and buried at the United Church Cem. at Mystic, PQ, was in fact a second son of Elijah Spear, also named Joel and was truly "Lees" great grandfather. The text of the letter follows but first the author wishes to say he met "Lee" Iowa Leona[9] Spear Wilson in June 1986 at the Spear Reunion at the home of Dr. and Mrs. (Margaret[10] Spear) Dagle at Fort Dodge, Iowa, great!!!

Following are the contents of a letter, in the compilers posession dated Feb. 17, 1790 at Benson, VT from Elijah[5] Spear to his brother and sister in Suffield, CT in which Elijah relates his plight and death of his son, Joel.

Quote: Dear Brother and Sister, After our love and regards to you and your families we gladly imbrace this opportunity to write you the lines informing you that we are all well and in good health, at present we sincerely hope . By the blessing of God that these lines may find you and yours enjoying the blessing of health with contentment of mind in the station that providence has provided for you and yours. Brothers, I expect undoubtedly you have heard of my misfortune as is reported, namely the loss of name and interest, some part of which is true.

Whether in name or interest I shant now dispute for I suppose they are both gone in your judgement to view for I find you are backward to come and see me or to send me letters of your well fair which I wish you would do them both if you can and not be a blot to your own ____ and parentage but not being willing to really blame you for I have neglected the same being under great trouble of body and mind and enemeys taking advantage of the same.

But leaving such controverseys I now inform that we are under comfortable circumstances to live and do well as to interest. But the adversary D.S. [unknown - perhaps a Spear or Sheldon] has sunk me in the time of one year as much as three hundred pounds at least, But I have now about two hundred more at my command, But in what situation it lies I shall not now relate for fear this may miscarry. I owe two debts that I have not paid, but they are not both of them more than 24 pounds, one of them to Leavitt and Hathaway of Eleven pounds I have enough due to pay as quick as can be collected. I believe you have heard something about it by the way of Capt. Leavitt but however I would inform that I do own to Mr. Gad Taylor for shoeing my horse when at Suffield last, five shillings and I am so far off that it is bad to pay him if you will pay him you will not lose the pay from me and that is good I wish you would pay him for he has used me well and I hate to abuse him, I shall in a short time see you or send you another line this from your brother and sister and well wishers to Moses and Asahel Spear, [signed] Elijah Spear [written on the margin] my lovely son Joel is dead I believe you have heard of it." [end of letter]

The author returned alone to Sherbrooke, PQ for four days of research at The National Archives and at the Law Library, Sherbrooke University where he searched microfilm of the personal and agricultural census for the County of Missisquoi, Lower Canada (now Prov. of Quebec) and for the Township of Stanbridge which was settled in 1795.

Having learned that the Missisquoi Historical Society and Museum was located at Stanbridge East right in the heart of where the Spear's lived and after much correspondence with Mrs. Sabine De Groote, its archivist, the author and his wife made another trip to the area. We stayed in a motel in Farnham, PQ a short distance from Mystic where we found the burial monument for Joel Spear and his son Aaron Spears. Both stones were covered with a black moss fungi, so the author purchased a pail and a bottle of liquid Spic and Span and with a wire brush and sponge cleaned the stones so they looked like new.

Other sources of data used for this particular line belonging to Elijah Spear were "Salls Families of the United States and Canada by Carroll M. Salls 1973; United Church Records, Bedford Circuit, PQ.; Anglican Church Records; Methodist Ch. Rec. St. Armond; List of lands granted by the crown in the Province of Quebec 1763-1890; Last Wills and Testaments, Dist. of Bedford various notary public; rec. Baptist Ch. Stanbridge 1849 by Francis N. Jersey, Minister; rec. of Jonas Souburger, Pastor, Advent Ch. in Missisquoi Circuit; baptisms by Rev. Chas. P. Dow, Minister (traveling) of the Gospel, District of Bedford.

Besides the dedicated help that was given by Marion Phelps and Sabine DeGroote the author acknowledges the help in his endeavor given by Andree Chartrand -Turgeon, Co-ordinator, and Stephen A. Moore, Researcher/Genealogist, Bishops University, Eastern Townships Research Center, Lennoxville, Quebec.

These people and others have obtained vital records in Quebec for the descendants of Elijah Spear which this compiler was then able to splice to-gether into a worth while genealogy for which we are very greatful.

Notary records (1799-1845) by Leon Lalanne, N.P., dated Jan. 27, 1827 is a Deed of Sale by Elijah Spear, yeoman, of Seigniory of District of Montreal, Province of Lower Canada sold land for the sum of three hundred dollars. Elijah Spear hereby acknowledges to have received one hundred dollar and the balance of two hundred to be paid to his son Elihu Spear by Barnabas Brady of Fairfield, County of Franklin in the state of Vermont, yeoman.

BALM OF GILEAD TREE

There is and has been one or more Balm of Gilead trees growing at 1461 North Grand Street, West Suffield, CT for as long as the author can remember.

The author was told that a Spear who had moved from Suffield to Vermont in the mid and late seventeen hundreds had brought the origional tree back to Suffield, on a visit.

Moses[5] Spear, II of West Suffield, CT had six brothers and sisters all married and living in Rupert, Pawlet and Benson, VT. They were: Nathaniel Spear, Sybel (Spear) Sheldon, Submit (Spear) Frary, Elijah Spear, Elizabeth (Spear) Phillips and Asahel Spear.

It leaves little doubt but the story is fact.

The Balm of Gilead tree, so called, is a variety of Balsam Poplar tree which is common to Vermont.

The following note copied by the compiler which is in his possession makes him wonder if his great grandfather didn't have a side business going.

"June 30th 1808 [the year is hardly legible] Mr. Spear, will thank you to send my shoes if they are done and if you will let me have some rye on the condition I proposed please send me word. If you do it you shall be paid as soon as convenient to thrash. After harvest I will pay in grain after harvest for one or both Barrels of that cider. If Mr. Taylor does not have it, Please send me word

This very long letter in the possession of this compiler and copied by him was written by Orange Frary, from Rupert, Vermont in 1822 to his ailing Uncle Moses[5] Spear II in Suffield, CT. Moses Spear died in 1824.

Orange Frary was fifty years old at this writing and had married his first cousin Chloe Sheldon, dau. of Sybil[5] (Spear) Sheldon.

Dear Sir, I take the liberty to address you once more; as the ties of consanguinity [and on my part] friendship incline me to sympathise with you in your old age, and impaired state of health. We have had the pleasure of hearing, by Mr. Hastings from you not long since: there seems to be evidently an over ruling providence in producing opportunities of conveying information to and from you, to us so often and why not - since it is God that worketh all things according to his own pleasure: our [torn] is therefore the only thing that can contribute to make us unhappy it seems to me that, if we ____ unreservedly Resign and give up, all our hopes from creations; and place our dependence on our creator, we should enjoy [as fast as human nature can] the same in degree, that angels and the spirits of the upper world enjoy.

The preceding chart for Joshua Spear requires some clarification which the compiler will attempt to do. The reader should be aware that when an event was recorded in West Springfield, MA, in the years prior to 1855 relative to our family, it was in the present day section of the Town of Agawam, called Feeding Hills. The Town of Agawam was set apart from West Springfield and incorporated May 17, 1855.

The compiler with the services of a professional researcher has engaged in an extensive study of data found in the land and court records at Springfield and Northampton, MA. We are comfortable with our research and submit that Asenath Winchell, first wife of Joshua Spear, was born March 17, 1760 at Suffield, CT, the dau. of Elder Jacob Winchell and his wife Asenath King who were mar. Sept. 7, 1759 at Suffield (see Winchell Genealogy) Asenath Winchell mar. first at age 15½ yrs. to Thomas Shattuck, Sept. 21, 1775 at West Springfield, MA (VR II, p.

146). The records of the First Baptist Church of Suffield, CT states that Asenath Shattuck was bp. Dec. 31, 1775 and another record says Asenath Winchell and Thomas Shattuck were received into full communion in the same church on Jan. 6, 1776. We believe Thomas and Asenath (Winchell) Shattuck had four children, two sons and two daughters.

The following record proves that Asenath Winchell was the first wife of Joshua Spear. Land record 152-29 dated Feb. 7, 1786 — I Jacob Winchell of West Springfield, County of Hampshire, Commonwealth of Massachusetts for and in consideration of love and affection I have, for my daughter Asenath Spear, wife of Joshua Spear of said place do give, etc. three tracts or parcels of land lying in said West Springfield [Feeding Hills], etc.

The only child of record born to Joshua Spear and Asenath Winchell was King Spear whose given name King was derived from the maiden name of his maternal grandmother, Asenath King.

Evidently, Joshua and Asenath went their separate ways between 1790 and 1795 (no divorce record found) as Asenath Winchell mar. third Oct. 4, 1795 at Feeding Hills, MA (Ch. rec. p.146 and West Springfield VR II p.155) Cyrus Alexander Starkweather as his second wife. He had mar. first Chloe Bagg who d. Sept. 13, 1795 at W.S. (VR, p.289), Cyrus and Asenath had three children. The youngest, Maria Starkweather died before her mother, May 26, 1823, age 25 yrs.

Asenath (Winchell) Starkweather, wife of Cyrus, d. Nov. 6, 1828 at West Springfield (VR, p.289), and is bur. with her dau. Maria Starkweather and per parents Elder Jacob Winchell and Asenath (King) Winchell, all in the Old Cemetery, So. Westfield St., Feeding Hills, MA. This appears to contradict page 90 of the Starkweather Genealogy which gives the father of Asenath (Winchell) Starkweather as John Winchell. John and Jacob Winchell were brothers.

Since no male was listed in the 1800 Census for either Joshua Spear or Cyrus Starkweather, other than themselves, it is thought King Spear, then ten years old, may have been with his Winchell grandparents. King Spear did not appear in a record again until he appeared in the 1830 NY Census Index at Antwerp, Jefferson Co.

Persons with contrary documentation are asked to communicate with this author or the descendants of King Spear, No. 4796, Faye Wood or No. 4820, Joyce Krieser.

Other land and court records of interest for Joshua Spear in the County of Hampshire (now Hampden Co.), MA are: No. 185 Thomas Shattuck of Petersham, Co. of Worcester, MA, sold 50 acres to Ezra Shattuck in Barnardston, MA, March 3, 1781.

No. 342-35, William Leonard of West Springfield to Joshua Spear, one acre land, May 26, 1796

No. 541-35, Thomas Shattuck of Catskill, Co. of Albany, NY, sold to Joshua Spear one half interest in 23 acres of land in Feeding Hills which Shattuck owned in common with Jacob Winchell, dated July 20, 1796.

Joshua[5] Spear enlisted March 1781 in the Company of Captain Parsons, Colonel Sam B. Well's Third Connecticut Regiment and was discharged in April 1783. His brother Elihu[5] Spear took his place in the ranks and was accidentally killed by a rock falling on him from "Pioneer Patriots of Bradford County. Pennsylvania" by Clement F. Heverly.

Joshua[5] Spear, soldier of the Revolution and a native of Suffield, Connecticut emigrated to Springfield, Bradford County, Pennsylvania, and settled there July 23, 1806. He took up and improved lands, bravely sharing the hardships with his remote neighbors in the wilderness." From History of Bradford Co., PA by Clement F. Heverly.

David Spear, trained for the ministry of the Rupert Congregational Church under the Rev. John Preston, pastor of the Rupert Congregational Ch. from 1798 to 1813. In the history of Jefferson Co., NY, published by Everts and Co. in 1878 on pg. 490 we read "Sept. 22, 1805, the Congregational Church of Rodman was formed. There was no regular preaching until the second Sunday in Aug [14] 1808, when the Rev. David Spear first preached and was soon employed at a salary of $220. He was energetic workman and in the first nine months of his pastorate preached 125 sermons and rode 2400 miles. In Sept. 1809, he was installed and continued pastor of the church until the fall of 1865, having been the spiritual guide of the church fifty seven years. Instances of such a long pastoral relation are indeed rare and no better evidence of his worth and esteem, earned by a lifetime of daily precept could be adduced than this long connection. Mr. Spear was born in Rupert, Vermont, June, 1781 and was one of three Congregational ministers in the county. After he had closed his ministerial career he moved to Mannsville [near Watertown, NY] (Jefferson Co.) to live with a daughter and remained there until his death. The church holds his memory in great esteem and has perpetuated it by placing his potrait in the house where he for so many years ministered." Mrs. E. J. Clark of Rodman [near Watertown] in History of Jefferson County, by Haddock adds" he died Nov. 13, 1868, aged 88 years". Another account says that he returned to his native state for his bride but does not reveal her identity.

If future historians or family descendants prove him wrong, it is hoped he will be forgiven, with the lack of data after years of research, it can be said we gave it our best shot.

This photo was taken on June 7, 1986 in the Mystic United Church Cemetery at Mystic, PQ, Canada. The stone was not legible when our research found it, but after a few hours of scrubbing by the author with a wire brush and Spic-and-Span cleaner, the result of which is this close up photo of Joel's stone after the cleaning. The smaller script appears to read "How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation".

The following paragraphs were pages 225, 226, 227 and 228 of the hand written history and genealogy by Spencer Eli Smith and submitted to the author by Mrs. Edward (Dorothy[10] Harwood) Sheldon. Data was obtained from the town records of Rupert, VT and from letters written in 1897 from Mrs. Elihu Flowers to Mr. Spencer Smith

"It was in Rupert [VT.] that he [Elisha Smith] met his future wife Lydia Spear. Lydia Spear's family resided in Rupert, but in 1791 or 1792 when Lydia was a small child they moved to Lower Canada at which place her mother died not long after. Shortly after her mothers death she, at about the age of four years, and her sister Roda returned to Rupert to live with their Aunt Leavet, with whom they resided till she [Aunt Leavet] moved to the West,

They [Rhoda and Lydia] then went to live with their Aunt Hulda (Austin) wife of Dea. Roswell Flower in Kent Hollow, [West Rupert, VT]. Here they must have resided for a number of years, and here Lydia met her future husband Elisha Smith. Lydia had two brothers, Moses and Joel Spear. It appears Moses and Joel did not return to Rupert but remained in Canada. The Spears were a respected family. From all that can be learned, it would appear that the Spears were of Puritan decent and that Lydia was brought up under good Christian influences. Roda [Rhoda] Spear married Seth Moore and settled in Rupert where they brought up a family and were universally esteemed and respected.

In 1809 or 1810, Elisha Smith and Lydia Spear were married. All records are lost so the exact date is not now known. For four or five years after their marriage, Elisha Smith must have worked for others, or possibly he may have taken land to farm on shares. From the best information we can obtain, it would appear that he worked mainly for Roswell[1] Flower. At any rate, it was not till March 24, 1815, that he bought of Roswell Flower a small farm of a little over 13¾ acres. This was situated a little above Roswell Flower and little south and west of it on the road that goes out of Kent Hollow south towards Sandgate.

At a nice place at the top of the hill a little distance above Mr. Flowers, where the road turns rather sharply to the left as one goes up the hill towards the south west, and to the west of the road and between that and a little mountain stream, he [Elisha Smith] built his home. There is every reason to believe that he built the house that stood at their place. Mrs. Elihu Flowers says that when she was a girl, she went to school with the children (meaning father and his sisters) and often it was at their home. The house was in good repair and looked as though it had not been long built. We never heard of anyone living there before them, so we believe Mr. Elisha Smith built the house. It was not a large house. There were two rooms below and the chamber was used for sleeping rooms. The house above the basement, which must have been of stone, was built of logs. The house was built in the side of a little hill or sloping ground. The front of the basement must have been a little above the gently sloping ground between the house and road, while the rear owing to the slope in the etc . . . . . .

914 John E.[6] Spear (Elijah[5], Moses[4], Nathaniel[3], Nathaniel[2], George[1]) Based on the Census of 1842 of Stanbridge, PQ, which follows in detail, the United Ch. rec. and notary records 1829-1869 by Henri Bondy, N.P., this complier has drafted a family chart for John E. Spear and his family. Since there were at least two John E. Spears at Stanbridge, this has been a very difficult family to document. John E. Spear said in the Census of 1842 that he was not a native of Canada and had been in the Province 48 yrs. Thus came as a child in 1794 or b. abt. 1793, prob. Benson, VT. The children shown in the 1842 census must have been by a former marriage and all four children were males having been born abt. 1827, 1829, 1831 and 1833. It would appear this John. E. Spear mar. second at age 49 yrs March 22, 1841 at the Methodist Ch., St. Armand, PQ, by Rev. Richard Hutchinson, Jane Tryon a res. of Caldwells Manor, dau. of David Tryon, Jr. and Jane Crawford. David Tryon's will, date, 1868 states his dau. Jane was the wife of John E. Spear and were res. of Clarenceville, PQ, Canada.

Canada Census, 1842, film -732, p.2569, line #24, one line above his brother Joel, Stanbridge, Missisquoi Cu. John E. Spear, a proprietor of Real Property, occ. farmer, inmates in family - 3, number of years in Province when not a native there of — 48 [came in 1794] above 5 yrs of age under 14 - 3 males, married persons 30 yrs of age not 60-2, number of British Wesleyan Methodist in each family - 2, acres occupied by family - 50, acres improved - 20, winchester bushels, wheat - 0, barley - 1, oats - 30, Indian corn - 24, meat cattle - 4, sheep - 9, hogs - 1, number of yards Fulled Cloth mfg. in the domestic way - 8, yards of Flannel or Woolen cloth not fulled but mfg. the domestic way - 10, pounds of wool procured in past year - 18, under what tenure is such land held by this family - Charter.

United Church Records, Bedford Circuit, PQ, Canada, 1836-1845, Folio 91, John E. Spear married Jane Tryon March 22, 1841, witnesses - Henry S. Spear, Sarah Tryon, Husband's residence - Stanbridge, wife's residence - Caldwell's Manor, Minister Richard Hutchinson's [Jane was the dau. of David Tryon and Jane Crawford].

No further record of this family was found except the notary records of Henri Bondy (1829-1869) which show a sale of land and buildings in 1852 by John Edward Spear which abutted Stephen Berry. My guess is that this is not this John E. Spear, but the John Edward Spear who mar. Nancy Berry, Stephan Berry's dau. in Illinois in 1853.

The following account is given of William[7] Spear by Waldo Chamberlain Sprague which describes Mr. Spear best:

"William Gardner[7] Spear" was an ardent antiquarian and collector at a time when antiques were first beginning to be collected and through him most of the furnishings of The John Quincy Adams birthplace, restored in 1896, were obtained. He was first librarian and custodian for the Quincy Historical Society formed in 1893. He was a "junk collector" as he called himself at marriage and engaged in a number of sidelines, theatrical agent, interested in amateur theatricals, etc., agent for steam pipe fittings, etc.

He also collected a large amount of material for a Spear genealogy, still unpublished, some in the custody of the Quincy Historical Society and some at the New England Historic Genealogical Society, Boston, MA, and much of this data for this family should be credited to him. It has been ably continued and expanded by Mrs. Grace P. Bonsall of Quincy (1952) to both of whom acknowledgements are made.

After Mr. Spear's marriage, he left town and gave up his interest, but his inheritance remains as a monument to him.

AGED TEACHER DIES AT THE KEEP HOME

Miss Amelia Spears, former Rodman [NY] Postmistress

Life of Service Ended

Taught many years at Rodman [NY] and was Principal of Village School

Miss Amelia M. Spears, a member for 13 yrs at the Henry Keep Home and former Principal of Rodman [NY] public schools died at 3 this morning at the home, 920 Washington St. following a stroke, aged 76 years. She had been in her usual good health up to Wednesday when she suffered a stroke. She had been down to the business section of the city Tuesday, and completed all of her Christmas purchases, prior to her illness. Her condition had been critical during the past two days.

Miss Spears was born in Rodman [NY], daughter of the late Preston and Hannah Spears, and the greater part of her life had been spent in that village, where she taught school for many years and later served in the capacity of Principal. She also was postmistress of the village for a number of years and was known to hundreds of the older residents of that community.

The grandfather of Miss Spears was known throughout northern New York as "Father" Spears. He, [Rev. David Spear], traveled about the community preaching from a wagon, before there were churches built in this north country, and conducted services in school-houses, homes and sometimes in barns, wherever a congregation could be collected.

The nearest surviving relatives are cousins. She leaves a cousin, Mr. Boynton, residing in Oswego [NY] and other cousins living in California.

This Elijah[7] Spear is no doubt the Elijah Spear mentioned on pg. 86 by George S. Hibbard in 1898 when he published "Rupert, VT, Historical and Descriptive 1761-1898.

He referred to Elijah Spear as a relative of Mrs. Seth [Rhoda[6] Spear] Moore, Sr. [Elijah[7] Spear was Rhoda[6] (Spear) Moore's nephew, the son of Rhoda's younger brother Moses[6] Spear] Mr. Hibbard said Elijah was of Congregational faith and was in town [Rupert] about 1865 and died in Canada.

It would appear that Elijah[7] Spear, being in Rupert in 1865 was probably because he had recently been separated from his wife Alzina Corey and came from Canada to visit his relations because a record found shows him a resident of Brome, Quebec in 1868, a Farmer, aged 55 yrs, and married for his second time on Feb. 20, 1868 at Franklin, VT (VR) Eliza A. Stebbins by L.L. French, minister. The record shows this marriage to be the third for Eliza, whose age was also 55 yrs, a res. of Enosburg, VT. Eliza Stebbins mar. first May 17, 1857, Rutland, VT, a res. of St. Mary's CE ([Canada East] by Leland Howard, Minister, the groom, Peter Young. Eliza Stebbins mar. 2nd Aug. 6, 1858, at Lowell, VT, born and a res. of Westfield, VT, age 49 yrs, parents unknown by A.J. Dodge, J.P., groom Samuel Miles.

From family tradition, it was believed Elijah Spear and his wife Alzina Corey separated without the benefit of a legal divorce. Alzina went to California to live with her son David Alexander Spear and Elijah died in Kentucky. This compiler had learned Elijah had married a second time after Alzina went west but his research in Kentucky discovered not only his burial place, but a third mar. on Oct. 27, 1876 at Lincoln Co., KY, to Charlotte Taylor (source - Lincoln Co., KY marriages and grave Inscriptions, 1850-1900). The 1880 Census of Lincoln Co., Ky-Speers, Elijah, age 65, Charlotte, age 49.

was used by Will Spear as a wagon shop. Presently the building is located between a barn and the home of Alan Tallis, 1411 North Grand St., West Suffield, CT

Lon and his brother, Bradford Lorenzo "Brad" Spear built the house in 1850 that is now 1461 North Grand St., W. Suffield.

Lon's large dovetailed tool chest and his tools have remained in the family for nearly a hundred years and it was this compilers privilege to give them to the Suffield Historical Society on Dec. 13, 1986. It is hoped they can be enjoyed by others for generations to come.

She evidently excelled at her job because they were married that fall. Brad and Lucina lived to celebrate their forty sixth wedding anniversary on Nov. 20, 1899

The following news article was a special to the Hartford Courant, dated March 21, 1917 at Windsor, CT

OLDEST RESIDENT OF SUFFIELD IS 90

MRS. B.L. SPEAR CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Lucina P. (Alderman) Spear who has been living a year at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles F. Lewis of Poquonock Ave., Windsor, but whose residence is in West Suffield, celebrated her ninetieth birthday today at her daughter's home. She had with her her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren and received many gifts and a post card shower.

She is the widow of Bradford L. Spear, who for many years was a prominent farmer and tobacco grower of West Suffield. Mrs. Spear was born in Westfield, MA, March 21, 1827 and spent her early life in that place being educated in the public schools there and later taught school there. She joined the Methodist Church of Westfield, at the age of fifteen years and on removing to West Suffield after her marriage, joined the West Suffield Methodist Church. She is the oldest member of that church and is also the oldest resident of the town of Suffield. She was married in Westfield [MA], Nov. 20, 1853 and soon after went to West Suffield to live, and has lived there sixty-two years.

She has two sons, former Representative Herbert L. Spear and W.A. Spear of West Suffield, and one daughter, Mrs. Cora Spear Lewis of Windsor, also one step-daughter, Mrs. J. Fuller Goodwin of Naugatuck, six grandchildren and three great grandchildren. Although her health has been somewhat impaired for two years, she is still active and can read and sew without glasses. She has a wonderful memory and talks most interestingly of her early life, especially of the days when she taught school. In those days, steel pens had not been invented and she remembers teaching the children to write with goose quills. She also remembers the invention of modern stoves, matches, and many other contrivances which are now in common use.

She comes from a family who have all reached a ripe old age having had six brothers and sisters, the youngest of whom died at the age of 74 years, while another reached the age of 90 years. During most of her life she has taken a lively interest in church work, being active in church societies until her health failing made it necessary for her to retire. [This compiler on March 21, 1917 was Lucina's great grandchild, being 39 days old]

This picture of "Brad" Spear's house that he built in 1850 was developed from a glass negative that had been taken by Howard Alderman[9] Spear, Sr., on Dec. 1904. Shown is Lucina Alderman Spear with her cats and chickens.

The Compiler has in his possession an account book which belongs to his great grandfather Bradford L.[7] Spear, 1844-1852, in which "Brad" kept a record of his expenses during the construction of his home at 50 North Grand St. (now 1461 N. Grand St.) West Suffield, CT. A notation on the inside of the front cover of his account book reads "Built house in 1850".

A receipt in the possession of this compiler and copied here makes interesting reading "Rec'd Suffield, Feb. 10, 1862 of Bradford L. Spears, Six 21/100 dollars in full for taxes on List of 1860, signed A.G. Sikes, Collector.

The real estate taxes for this same property for 1986 were $2,545.00

Obituary: STATION AGENT SPEAR OF BYRON [NEW YORK] STRUCK AND KILLED BY A TRAIN

HE WAS ATTEMPTING TO CROSS THE TRACK AT 12:15 THIS AFTERNOON AND DID NOT HEAR THE EXPRESS AS TWO FREIGHTS WERE STANDING AT THE STATION

Byron, [NY], Dec. 23, [1910] — William A. Spear, West Shore Station Agent at Byron, was struck by a fast westbound train at 12:15 o'clock this afternoon and so badly injured that he died in a few minutes.

Both the east and west bound way freights were at the station at the time. One was on a siding and the other on track no. 1. Mr. Spear undertook to cross the railroad, not hearing the fast train, which was nearly two hours behind time, approaching on track no. 2 because of the noise made by the standing trains and he stepped directly in front of the express, being thrown some distance. It was evident that the engineer or firemen did not know that anyone had been struck, as the train was not stopped.

Mr. Spear was still breathing when railroad men reached him and Dr. Wheeler was quickly summoned. He died, however, soon after being carried into the depot. The back of his head was crushed and one leg broken. Coroner Ryan of Oakfield was notified of the accident and he came to Bryon about noon.

Mr. Spear, who has been station agent at Byron a number of years, having come here from the eastern part of the state, was about 55 years of age. He was highly esteemed in the community. He is survived by his wife; a son, Clarence A. Spear, who is a merchant at Oakfield and a daughter, Miss Ethel Spear, who is attending the nurses training school in connection with the Rochester City Hospital.

Emma D. (Mills) Spear met her husband "Herb" Spear while she was employed as a school teacher at the Rattlesnake Swamp School, North School District, now Spruce St., West Suffield, CT. The former school has since been made into a residence. During Emma's term as teacher she boarded with the Freeman family, a large brick house now the Glownia place, 1630 Spruce St., (West) Suffield, CT.

The compiler has in his possession the brass bell that Emma, his grandmother, used to call the school children into class with.

SPEAR'S SAWMILL

The sawmill and site situated at the Massachusetts, Connecticut state line on North Grand Street, West Suffield, CT, containing two and one half acres, more or less, was purchased for the sum of three thousand dollars on Jan. 2, 1878 by Herbert L. Spear from Charles F. Lewis and Chloe Lewis, his wife, such deed recorded Jan. 4, 1878 in Book 32, page 293 of the Land records of Suffield, CT. Also included in the same deed was a one acre parcel of land on the west side of North Grand Street, opposite the mill site which contained the old house, occupied by Charles and Chloe Lewis and pondage rights to the pond.

This deed documents the fact that the authors grandfather, Herbert L. Spear was slightly more than twenty three years of age and unmarried (as he did not marry until 1880) when he purchased the house and sawmill.

The old house mentioned in the deed stood on the canal bank and is pictured within these covers. It was the birth place of the four sons of Herbert and Emma (Mills) Spear. The house was torn down soon after 1910 when Herbert L. Spear built a new house on land adjoining to the north. The author remembers the site of the socalled "old house" as the foundation remained until recent years when the cellar hole was bulldozed to allow the building of a loading dock for loading and unloading farm machinery by the Consolidated Cigar Corp., Spear Farm.

Also of interest to the readers is that Charles F. Lewis agreed in the deed to vacate the "old house" by June 1, 1878. He and his wife Chloe (Hastings) Lewis moved to Windsor, CT, where Chloe died Feb. 20, 1879. Charles F. Lewis then took for his second wife Cora Hattie Spear, the youngest sister of Herbert L. Spear who was twenty years younger than her husband Charles F. Lewis.

On the same date, Jan. 2, 1878, when Herbert L. Spear purchased the sawmill and two and one half acres of land on the east side of North Grand St., and one acre with the "old house" on the west side, he mortgaged the same two parcels for two thousand dollars and gave a mortgage deed to Louisa J. Hanchett of Suffield, interest payable semi annually at six percent and taxes and insurance, recored Jan. 4, 1878 in Suffield, CT, Land Records Book 34, pg. 28, the above mortgage was released on Feb. 28, 1903 by Hugh M. Alcorn, Administrator to the Estate of Louisa J. Hanchett.

In 1912 Bert married Jennie L. Sparks, the girl next door, who was the first to die in this lovely home in August of 1914. In September of 1914, Forrest and Mary lost their first born.

This is the house built by Herb Spear on the hilltop just north of their old home, into which the family moved in 1910. The new house was a fifteen room, three story house, considered a mansion in its time. It was built to accomodate Herb and Emma Spear, their son's Bert and Forrest and his bride Mary Ellen Fahey. The birthplace of Verne R. Spear, the author of this book.

Bert married for his second wife "Reba" Pratt, in South Easton, MA and brought her here to live in 1916, the year the old house, that Moses had built, was razed.

The next event to take place in the new house was on Feb. 11, 1917, when this author hurriedly decided to be born that day rather than a projected date decided on by Dr. Caldwell. The author's mother, Mary (Fahey) Spear, often remarked that "you were in a hurry then and you still are".

If the reader reflects about the activities at this house one should remember that in a short span of seven years, there had been three marriages, two births and two deaths.

If the author said everything was calm and serene at this house in 1917, with three wives living under the same roof, I'm quite sure no one would believe such a story. Add the author, then a newborn, with his crying and to say the least, it must have been pandemonium which the author's mother verified numerous times. When the author's great grandmother, Lucina (Alderman) Spear, because of failing health, moved from the Bradford L. Spear Homestead on North Grand Street to live with her daughter Cora (Spear) Lewis, at Windsor, CT, it presented an opportunity for the author's father Forrest M. Spear to purchase the Homestead. With some hurried renovations the author, then two months old, in April, 1917, with his parents, moved into the Homestead built in 1850 by the author's great grandfather, Bradford L. Spear.

The author's sister, Beulah M. (Spear) Nicholson, was born in the front room of the Homestead in 1920. We both lived at home until such time as we married, then we each flew the coop.

Spear's Icehouse

The icehouse was a huge structure, the remains of which this author remembers from his childhood days. It was situated on the east side of North Grand Street on the south bank and under the canal and north of Burleson's Brook. It was built at that location so when the ice was cut on Spear's Pond, it could be floated down the canal towards the mill and then slid down a chute into the icehouse. The ice was then covered with layers of sawdust from the sawmill which would keep the ice from melting throughout the summer months.

When warm weather arrived the ice was then sold and delivered by horse and wagon to families across the Feeding Hills Plains, "Lemon City" so called and the "Patch" so called in North Agawam.

A photo of Charles F. Lewis and the following article appeared in a local newspaper (date unknown).

Charles F. Lewis is Windsor's veteran miller and is proprietor of the Windsor Grist Mill which occupies the oldest mill site in Connecticut. He was born in Chester May 23, 1838. He was educated in the schools of Chester but after the age of eleven years never attended school, except during the winter months. In 1858, he shipped on a coasting vessel and for some time served on boats plying between the Connecticut River and New York. In 1861 he went to Springfield, Mass., and was employed at the armory there. On Sept. 1, 1864 he joined the Thirteenth Company, unattached Heavy Artillery, M.V., and served with this company until the close of the war. After the war he engaged in farming and later engaged in the sawmill business in Suffield.

In 1878, he, with his brother-in-law, Abijah Hastings bought the Windsor Grist Mill and it was conducted under the name of Lewis and Hastings until 1881, when he bought out the interest of his partner.

Iowa Leona Spear Wilson, who asked to be called "Lee" is the author and compiler of the Spear Family Memorial, a lovely 8½x11, red, hard-cover book published by the Abilene Printing and Stationary Co., Abilene, TX in 1985.

This author and Lee made contact August 20, 1985, when I called her on the phone to tell her that her letter of inquiry to the Vital Records Office at Montpelier, VT, had been given to me that day by the clerk, Lillian Maloney, where I was also researching the very same Spears. As a result of this contact I was able to include this line of Spears in the genealogy. It also resulted in my wife and I being invited to the Spear Cousins Reunion, which we attended June 22, 1986, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Margaret (Spear) Dagle, Fort Dodge, IA

Lee, a spry lady of nearly 88 yrs young also attended the reunion as the honored guest. Needless to say, it was a memorable event for this author to meet Lee and the rest of his newly found cousins.

Bert Spear lived most of his married life in the fifteen room house on North Grand St., West Suffield, near the Massachusetts state line overlooking Spear's Pond. He was one of the early persons to generate his own electricity for his domestic use, he owned an automobile long before they were commonplace and he was one of the first in the Connecticut Valley to grow so-called "shadegrown" tobacco. He employed many boys and men to raise and harvest tobacco by "picking" the leaves, girls and women to "sew" the leaves and some to "fire the sheds", a process for curing the tobacco leaves. This author, when in his early teens, fired sheds for his Uncle Bert on the shift from 7 PM to 7 AM. It was this job that enabled him to purchase his first brand new bicycle for thirty dollars. It was a Monarch model built by the Columbia Mfg. Co. in Westfield, MA.

Bert also harvested ice from Spear's Pond on a commercial scale. Ice was used by households in their ice boxes to keep perishables cool and by dairy farmers to cool their milk. This business became obsolete with the advent of electricity and refrigerators.

When Bert retired in 1941, he sold his home and farm to Hale Bros., later it became The Spear Farm of the Consolidated Cigar Corp., a div. of Gulf and Western. Tobacco farms are fast disappearing from the valley and The Spear Farm recently changed hands and is now a large nursery.

Uncle Bert and Aunt Reba purchased a retirement home at 392 North Main St., Suffield, where they spent their remaining years. After their passing, this author was the executor of their estate.

Forrest Spear, the author's father, was a hard-working, honest, enterprising and extremely likeable man.

On March 17, 1917, Forrest purchased and received a warantee deed, Vol. 49, p. 524, for the Bradford L. Spear Homestead from Berton R. Spear, situated at what is now 1461 North Grand St., West Suffield, CT. He worked the farm by growing tobacco and had a large herd of dairy cattle. The milk produced was sold to a Springfield, MA concern that went bankrupt. On March 10, 1938, Forrest sold at auction his entire herd to devote more time to his expanding lumber and building business.

On March 30, 1917, Forrest purchased and received a warrantee deed, Vol. 49, p. 529, from his father, Herb Spear for the sawmill and millyard located on the east side of North Grand St. where he did custom sawing for local farmers as his father had. The sawmill was water-powered by an upright, undershot waterwheel. The water came from Spear's Pond by the way of a canal which ran under a bridge on North Grand Street. The bridge was owned and maintained by the Spear family which was adjacent to the town bridge which spanned Burleson's Brook. When the State of Conn. decided in the early nineteen thirties to pave North Grand St., Forrest was given a choice of paying for a new concrete bridge to be built over the canal or to fill the canal in. The canal was filled in thus ending an era of waterpower at that location. This author worked with his father in both the water powered sawmill and the gasoline powered mill until the mill was dismantled in the nineteen forties. Thus this author was the last of the Spear family to work the mill at that site.

Forrest Spear was a builder of stock barns, tobacco sheds and fine homes throughout the Conn. Valley. He was a Deputy Forest Fire Warden for the State of Conn. and at the time of his death had been treasurer for many years of the West Suffield Grange.

After WWII, Forrest and his son Verne formed a partnership for the manufacture of lumber. They cut off timber lots throughout CT, MA and VT and in 1950 formed the Spear Lumber Company, Inc., with Forrest as president and Verne treasurer, the position Forrest held at the time of his death.

The photo of a panoramic view of the Spear Lumber Company, Inc., in 1955 was taken from the second floor bedroom window, looking north easterly, of the house that Bradford L. Spear, built in 1850, now 1461 North Grand St., West Suffield, CT. The saltbox house in the background (now 1515 N. Elizabeth wrote the following to this author in Jan., 1986:

Dear Cousin Verne,

I was born in the frame house built in 1816 by my relative Zelotes Gates on Dec. 2, 1902 to Franklin George Spear and Winifred Emma Rich. I still possess the house and the seventh generation is living there. I went to the district school, graduated from Woodstock High School in 1921, took nurses training at Mary Fletcher Hosp., Burlington, VT and graduated in 1925. Worked in the nursing field 47 yrs, supervisor, nurse, anesthetist, infirmary school nurse.

Retired in 1972 to the River St. farm house, in 1979 to the Homestead, a home for elderly. Still drive a car and volunteer one day a week at Mt. Ascutney Hosp. at Windsor, VT.

I witnessed Halies Comet in 1910 with father, mother and baby brother from the farm house porch and plan on another view this year.

Judy Byrne[11] Putnam sent the following to the author in 1985 regarding her mother Gladys[10] (Moore) Flaesch, Byrne and her sister Joyce Ann[11] Byrne: Gladys Byrne, my mother, had German Measles when pregnant for Joyce. Mother had a stroke in March, 84 in VA where she and Joyce lived with my brother Glenn E. Byrne.

I brought mother (Gladys) and Joyce to Corning, NY to live with our family. Mother recovered amazingly well for 83 yrs old and now (1985) lives in a senior citizen home in Oxford, NY and I (Judith) became the guardian of Joyce.

My sister Joyce was born with many afflictions, cone shaped eyes (only side vision), vocal impediment, club foot and one leg shorter than the other. Her leg has been lengthened and is only ¾" shorter now, clubfoot has been straightened and fused by age 12 yrs.

Joyce had a complete cornea transplant, Sept., 1984, on her right eye, a great success she can see straight ahead for the first time in 49 yrs. Oct., 1985 she will have the left eye cornea transplant in Rochester, NY so she can see straight ahead with both eyes.

Jan., 1985, Joyce started attending school at 49 yrs old, Pathways, in Corning, NY, a patterning school for mentally retarded people and is printing her name now.

Joyce is a pretty stable person after being raised at home all these years. She has a happy christian spirit.

She is very precious to all of us in the family. She's the special sister (we feel) God gave us. We call her Joy most of the time for that is what she brings to our home.

Mrs. C. Janice Bartlett Stewart gave this explanation as to why she is called Janice. At the time she was growing up in Plainfield, VT, there were four Clara Bartletts in town. She had been given Clara as her first name for her grandmother, Clara Bartlett, the wife of Joseph Bartlett, who was called "Clara Joe". A cousin, Miss Clara Agnes Bartlett was called "Little Clara". Mrs. Clara Bartlett, a friend, a neighbor and wife of Truman Bartlett was called "Clara Truman", and so Clara Janice Bartlett became Janice Bartlett. All mail for the above Clara's came to the same post office.

A note from the author: He and the many Dewey descendants of David Bradley Dewey and his wife Catherine Mahala[7] Spear have Atheleen[10] Vaughn Huser to thank for her dedicated efforts in obtaining and compiling the data of this line. The author and Atheleen met early in the research for this book at which time Atheleen offered to research the Dewey line. She, like the author, has spent much of her time and money writing letters and follow-up letters in an attempt to obtain the data needed to form a complete genealogy.

Atheleen, we thank you.

— Acknowledgement: —

The author and Mrs. Maudean Neill (Mrs. Lewis B.) met quite by chance in the "Roots Cellar," Vital Records Office at Montpelier, VT on his very first visit in April, 1985. Maudean saw the author's name in the registration book and the fact he was searching for Spear families and made herself known to him. That chance meeting was all to the benefit of the author and this book.

Maudean's interest in the Spear genealogy was that her husband's Spear lineage, which is (Lewis Bernard[11] Neill, Laura Caroline[10] Warren, Lewis LaFrance[9] Warren, Mary[8] Spear, Horace[7], Joseph[6], John[5], John[4], Joseph[3], Ebenezer[2], George[1]), had been incorrectly published by C.L. and Sceva Spear in 1938 and she expressed a keen desire to have it published correctly.

From that meeting in 1985 until the author wrote the final manuscript, Maudean continued to devote much of her time and energy with little compensation to search every possible source for data, which she sent to this author.

The author, speaking for himself and for the readers of this book, express their thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Maudean Neill for her contribution of data found in this book.

For the last number of years Raymond has operated a franchised air freight delivery service from Bradley International Airport, at Windsor Locks, CT, but truck repairs were ever present so on Aug. 31, 1987, Raymond returned to a local building supply firm as yardman, the position he had held before he left for air freight.
